When can I leave my house?

Unless you are accessing essential services or you are an essential worker, South Australians are being urged to stay home.

One person per household once a day will be able to leave their house to access groceries and other essential services.

Medical, including mental health, suppliers and services will remain open.

People will also be able to get tested for COVID-19 during the lockdown.

Regional travel is not approved and if you are in a location at the commencement of the lockdown you are required to stay there. Exercise, including outdoor sport, is also not permitted outside the home.

Will planned holidays, wedding and funerals go ahead?

No, holiday travel won't be permitted and properties won't be available to rent. Weddings and funerals have also been banned for six days.

Where do I have to wear a mask?

Masks have been made mandatory in South Australia in all areas when outside the home.

Kind Regards
